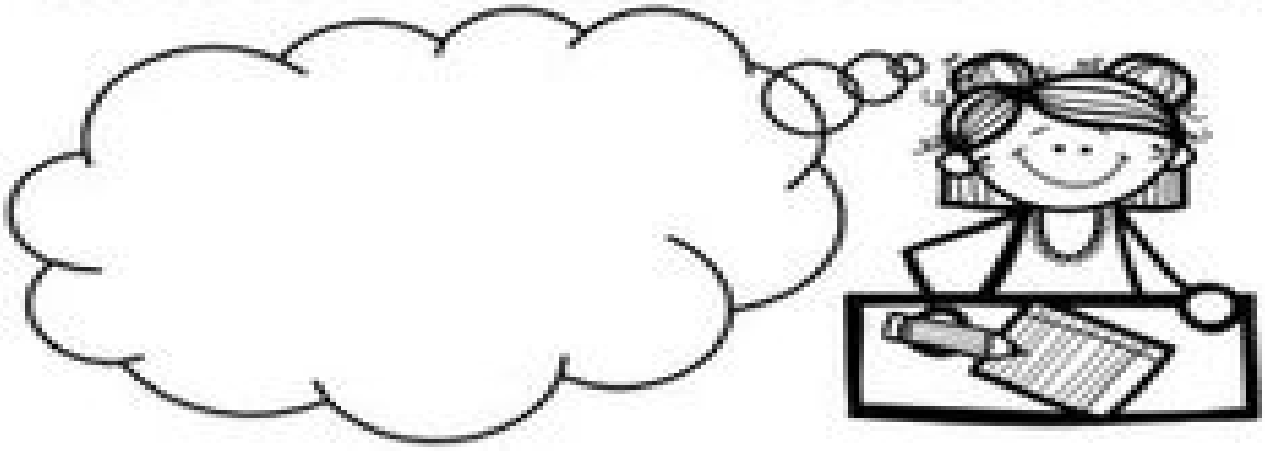
Chapter Five

Use details from chapter five to write a diary entry from Amber's point of view. Include details about how she feels and what she is thinking. Check your response for neatness, correct spelling, capital letters at the beginning of sentences, and punctuation marks at the end of sentences. You can use the space at the bottom to draw a picture of what Amber must be thinking.


Dear Diary,