

Name: _____

Landform Matching

Directions: Match each landform to its definition.

atoll

area of barren land with roughly eroded ridges and peaks canyon

body of water that is partly enclosed by land with a wide outlet to the ocean

sound

dry areas of land, desolate, waterless, with little vegetation

badlands

ring-shaped island formed by coral buildup on the rim of an underwater volcano desert

hill that rises abruptly from surrounding area with sloping sides and a flat top peninsula

long, wide body of water connecting larger bodies of water

bay

piece of land that is surrounded by water on three sides

tundra

deep, narrow valley with high steep walls

butte

an inland, grassland area

prairie

vast, treeless plains with permafrost and small, low plants