Working with coins

Write the answers in the boxes.

Sarah has

Jane has

How much more does Jane have than Sarah?

504 − 334 = 174

Write the answers in the boxes.

Paul has these coins.

How much more does Paul need to have $1?

Janine wants to buy a toy for

She has these coins.

How much more does Janine need?

Ricki gives the shopkeeper $1.00.
He buys treats that cost 94¢.
Ricki has two coins in his change.
Which two coins does he have?

Mark has three coins that add up to 36¢.
Which three coins does Mark have?

Jane is given these coins by her mother.

How much more than one dollar does Jane have?

Paul has three coins which total 40¢.
Which coins does Paul have?

Alex has these coins.

Raj has these coins.

How much more does Alex have than Raj?

© DK Publishing (2010)