

11th Grade SAT Vocabulary List Seven

- 1. Heretic n. one who differs from accepted belief or theory
Witches were hanged and burned as heretics by religious fanatics during the Puritan era.
- 2. Inexorable adj. inflexible; not movable by any means
Her inexorable religious convictions led her to live a life of chastity and self-sacrifice as a nun.
- 3. Aver v. to state firmly and convincingly
I averred my new year's resolutions on January 1st, only to break them the next day.
- 4. Equivocal adj. open to two interpretations; evasive, unclear
His puzzling, equivocal answer left us all stunned and questioning his sanity.
- 5. Garrulous adj. extremely talkative; gabby, loquacious
The garrulous teenage girls never tired of gossiping and talking about their boyfriends.
- 6. Posit v. to propose; suggest
When he first posited his idea no one thought it would work, but as it turned out it has attributed to the success of the company.
- 7. Proponent n. one who talks in favor of something; an advocate
John is hardly a proponent of sloth, he generally works sixty hours a week and sometimes more.
- 8. Respite n. rest, pause, lull; time of relief from activity
Winter break will be welcome respite from my busy school schedule.
- 9. Elucidate v. to explain fully and clearly
Mrs. Macintosh, our geometry teacher, is always willing to elucidate a problem if we don't understand it.
- 10. Sagacious adj. prudent; showing wisdom in one's understanding of things
It is amazing how sagacious Joy is for a twelve-year-old; she has more sense than some thirty-year-olds I know.
- 11. Atrophy v. to wither, degenerate; to waste away
When the doctor removed the cast from my arm, I found that my muscles had atrophied considerably.
- 12. Burgeon v. to flourish, to grow and quickly expand; bloom
Ideas burgeon in people's minds just as flowers and weeds burgeon in soil.
- 13. Affluent adj. wealthy in a material sense
In Haiti, there are few affluent people; most people are so indigent they live in small shacks.
- 14. Tawdry adj. cheap-looking; showy, gaudy
Her sequined gown was tawdry enough, but the cheap costume jewelry made her outfit look even more ridiculous.
- 15. Rancor n. deep-seated bitterness; old enmity
The rancor in the family made it impossible to celebrate holidays together without a fight ensuing.