Communication

Tip: ... You will very should practice practicing when you communicate. What is important is to get the meaning across. You can use gestures or facial expressions.

A) How to introduce yourself :

1) I am ... (grade / informal situations.)
I am ... (full name). Call me (nicknames) you listener in formal and informal situations.
I am Malaysian (nationality). ..... I can speak English and Malay (fluently). I also (fluently) going (verbs) with a (name of hobbies). I am believed as well.
2) I am (...) nice to meet you.
..... good to meet you.

B) Introducing others :

Meet Mary in Jalan
Jalan this is Ahmad
Have you ever met each other ?
This is Mark (Mr/Mrs/Miss/Ms).
I would like you to meet ..... (formal situations)

C) Asking for information :

Can you help me please ? I am looking for .....
Will you please show me how to get to .....
Will you please show where I can find .....
What time does the bus leave/it arrive?
Could you please listen to me . I need your help (formal situations / polite)
I'm grateful. I am all ears.
Thank you (very much /indeed).
Don't mind / don't worry about this / forgiveness

D) Giving directions :

Go straight . Turn right / left . It is opposite / in front of / beside
You can walk / take a bus . Go along/ up the street. It is in the corner . Walk across / through / pass / take / position) . Walk along the pavement.

E) Likes and dislikes :

Do you like ..... ?
What kind of ..... do you like ?
I am really afraid .....
I am fond of .....
I adore .....
I do not like ..... (I hate/dislike ..... I'd hate .....
Whether (This is not my cup of tea = I do not like this)

F) Responding to good news :

Did that a good ?
Well done.
Congratulations !
That's wonderful !

G) Responding to bad news / unwelcome :

Oh, sorry to hear that !
You poor thing !