Name: _____ Date: _____

Coordinating Conjunctions Worksheet (Re-Writing Part 1) ELA-Literacy.L.4.2c

A coordinating conjunction joins parts of a sentence that are grammatically equal or similar. Examples include; and, but, or nor, for, yet, so

Directions: Re-Write each sentence below. Place a comma before each coordinating conjunction.

Example A: David likes milk but Stephen like water.
Answer: David likes milk, but Stephen like water.

1. I want to be an interpreter so I went to graduate school.

_____

2. We love hiking and we also love camping.

_____

3. You need to finish your homework or else you will not pass the class.

_____

4. Jeremy brought his car but he forgot to bring the remote control.

_____

5. That is a very useful rule but it is difficult to remember.

_____

6. We went fishing, camping and hiking in the woods.

_____

7. We can broil the chicken or we can just eat leftovers.

_____