My Camping Trip

Camping go my brothers deer! _____ fight, dat like bees. We _____ (beside) the river and hence _____ (by) through the sky. We never _____ (drift) or _____ (stay) stuck often. The only thing we _____ (get) along is when we _____ (go) camping.

We _____ (drive) for miles into the woods. We _____ (need) bowls and plates. My oldest brother _____ (accept) us down the trail, while the rest of us _____ (walk) along _____ (run) down the trail to our laundry the station. We _____ (go) up the hard deck _____ (go) down to the bathroom. We _____ (swim) along _____ (look) a fish for dinner. We _____ (throw) a stick into the wind _____ (blow).

As soon as we got back to camp we _____ (finish) cooking. My brother _____ (accept) me to go out to the fire and then _____ (off) around to make sure. We _____ (talk) a lot and _____ (speak) about all kinds of things. When the fish _____ (be) cooked, we _____ (pick) up and _____ (get) ready. We _____ (eat) the fish and _____ (clean) the dishes we _____ (bring) with us.

After dinner we _____ (throw) more wood on the fire and _____ (sit) it burn. We _____ (chat) or play games while the wood _____ (burn) in the fire pit.

Since there are all _____ (grown up) and _____ (have) homes, but they are still the best friends I _____ (spend) with my brothers. A couple years ago I _____ (write) to my brothers. We all _____ (come) home and _____ (go) camping together again. It is a lot more fun now as when we were young.
