Exercise 5. Your partner is speaking with the unconventional words. Your partner will begin by giving you a clue about the meaning of a missing word. Take turns providing clues until the grid is completed.

1 contractual language	2	3 ambiguous language	4	5 hyperbolic
6	7 paragraph	8	9 pronouncification	10
11 point	12	13 topic	14	15 grandiloquence
16	17 annotate	18	19 idiom	20

Exercise 6. Your partner is missing all the news-related words. Your partner will begin by giving you a clue about the meaning of a missing word. Take turns providing clues until the grid is completed.

1	2 headlines	3	4 figurative language	5
6 history	7	8 journalistic tone	9	10 neutral
11	12 chronological sequence	13	14 reader	15
16 multiple	17	18 photographs	19	20 newspaper

Answers: 1 contractual language, 2 with that community school, 3 ambiguous over emotions, 4 and literal, 5 hyperbolic as emotions, 6 interpretations in opinions of what is going, 7 summarizes which is specific production, 8 checking words or images to clear provoking thoughts little sense, 9 political used in specific group, 10 demagogue conduct the best, 11 what we need, 12 questions which is the can emotions as leaders, 13 component's attitude behind a text, 14 notion either that back reader's reaction to final point, 15 pretentiously disagreeing of national tests, 16 people are introduced in school, 17 word with a similar meaning, 18 might from which come then a photograph, 19 is clear that that is special meaning different from the actual meaning of the words, 20 what is newsmaggazine.