Name: _____ Date: _____

CCSS: [illegible]

WRITING PROMPT

Think about something or an experience that is important to you. For example, maybe you have a special blanket you carry everywhere, or a certain place that you go with your family or friends.

Write a story which describes an experience that is important to you. Give enough details for readers to understand why it is important to you.