

5. The Old House

¹Everyone always stayed away from the old, red and yellow house on the corner of our block. ²Some people said that a mean, old woman lived there. ³Others said that they had seen a man on the porch surrounded by hundreds of cats. ⁴Sometimes on the way home from school, my best friend Jason would sneak up to the house, ring the doorbell, and run. ⁵Well, one windy day, Jason quietly tiptoed up to the front door and accidentally stepped on a squeaky board on the front porch. ⁶He stopped, looked at me, and then took a few more steps toward the doorbell. ⁷SWOOSH!!! ⁸The screen to the front door swung open and slammed hard against the front wall of the house. ⁹Jason froze; he didn't move a muscle. ¹⁰The rest of us ran down the street as fast as our feet could take us.
