

Comma worksheet

Combine the following sentences to make one complex sentence. Make the sentences in bold font into adverbial clauses and use a comma to separate the clauses.

1. We love dancing. We arrived early at the competition to get front row seats.
2. We searched everywhere. We could not find the lost kitten. We looked under the house.
3. Suki was learning to play the violin. She practised after school every day. She became a very good violinist.
4. My neighbours installed a swimming pool in their backyard. They have become very popular.
5. The carnival came to town. Most people went to the carnival. They knew they would have a good time.

Combine the following sentences to make one complex sentence. Make the sentences in bold font into adjectival clauses and use a comma to separate the clauses.

1. The team won the competition. It had all the best players in the district.
2. The President will be visiting next month. He is newly elected. He is very popular.
3. The track goes down into the valley. It is very steep. It takes two hours to walk.
4. Mai got a job. She has just finished school. She really likes her job.
5. Raj came first in the test. He studies very hard. Most of the class failed the test.