Amphibians Venn Diagram

Amphibians are animals that live on land and in water. Some have tails, some have legs, and some have both. Cut out the following characteristics and place them on the Venn diagram.

Frogs

Salamanders

Caecilians

Characteristics

- Have legs
- Have tadpoles
- Have tails
- Can climb
- Have moist skin
- Are carnivorous
- Have webbed feet
- Eggs are shell less
- Live in water and on land
- Have a hearing organ on each
- Spend most of the time on land
- Can make loud, musical calls
- Live during the day both in and
- Mother gills with lungs in adulthood
- Grow up through a complete metamorphosis
- Can see underfoot or vibrations in the ground
- Reproduce on dry with fertilization
- Are body colors similar to the colors, or exactly colors