Name: _____

Middle School Level Test – Grammar

Sometimes the same word can be a noun, verb, or adjective, depending on how that word is used. Note the four underlined words in each sentence and decide if they are nouns (N), verbs (V), or adjectives (A).

1. Mexico don't have enough money to provide rather comfortable life there.
2. Why students don't engaged enough while reading the book.
3. We need more a better and intelligent system to successfully organizing unlimited financial collections.

Underline the grammatical errors in each sentence and show in one word the type.

4. Did I already told you I'll always more like a night more than a dragon?
5. Doesn't people know what that concept.
6. My dictionary book is big enough to hold all the work to the dictionary.

Which sentence is correct?

7. ☐ I have a million questions about library.
   ☐ I have a million questions about library.

8. ☐ I know how big a dictionary should.
   ☐ I know how big a dictionary should.

Sometimes one words might have the same or similar meanings. Write the highlighted word in each sentence. Underline the synonym.

Ex: Mexico City is having problems as one more city advanced towards out of control pollution. It's difficult to advance of them.

9. You notice don't receive calling phone about Carol's release when you leave? It's necessary check phone notification.
10. Was small all your dishes in school cupboard today.
11. Was when of the Mexico world or many dictionary imaginative.

Choose the right preposition.

12. She did travel to Mexico _____ Sunday.

☐ in ☐ on ☐ at ☐ for

13. Mexico is up _____ five today.

☐ in ☐ on ☐ with ☐ to

14. Why do she need to _____ her school.

☐ in ☐ off ☐ at ☐ for