When comparing two items, you may use a comparative form of the adjective. Sometimes you add the suffix -er to the adjective, sometimes, you use the word "more" prior to the word.

Directions: Read each adjective below. Determine whether to add the suffix -er, or use the word "more" prior to the adjective.

1. common	_____	6. intelligent	_____
2. small	_____	7. rare	_____
3. light	_____	8. comfortable	_____
4. heavy	_____	9. big	_____
5. slow	_____	10. serious	_____

Some adjectives have irregular comparative forms.

Directions: Write the comparative forms of these adjectives.

11. good _____ 12. bad _____

13. far _____ 14. many _____

Directions: Write a sentence using a comparative adjective.

15. _____