Rosa Parks

"I felt I had a right to sit where I was." – Rosa Parks, "I've decided this particular struggle for freedom, that we've been dealing headfree unfairly as individuals, I think it is a principle."

- Day was born on February 4th, 1913 in Tuskegee, Alabama.
- Parks identified Raymond Parks, a barber, in 1932. They married in 1933.
- In 1943, Rosa Parks became Alabama Administrator Manager _____ – a city with Jesse Robinson's organization's branch and NAACP.
- On 1 December 1955, after her day of work, she _____ the bus. Parks took a city bus.
- When she refused to give up her seat, she was _____ the bus.
- Parks was arrested.
- Events were called Montgomery Bus Boycott, Montgomery Improvement Association, Martin Luther King, Jr.
- Boycott continued, it succeeded and led to _____ in Montgomery City Lines. Rosa was the "mother of freedom."
- She was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by Bill Clinton in 1996.
- She _____ on October 24th, 2005.
- Today, there is a National Museum of Civil Rights and American Awareness center.