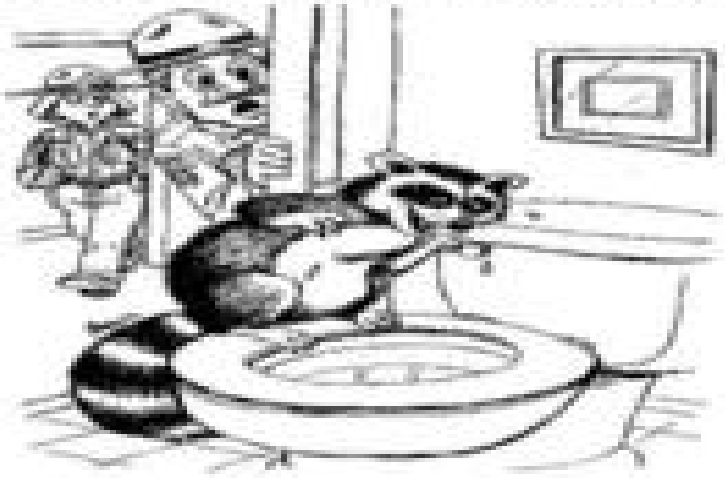
Subject Verb Agreement

If a sentence has a singular subject then it must have a singular verb.
If a sentence has a plural subject then it must have a plural verb.



1. The racoon _____ sitting on the toilet. (is/are)
2. The man _____ a moustache. (has/have)
3. The tiles on the floor _____ square. (is/are)
4. The racoon _____ a striped tail. (has/have)
5. The woman _____ wearing trousers. (is/are)
6. Both people _____ wearing hats. (is/are)
7. The man _____ looking around the corner. (is/are)
8. The woman _____ walking down the hall. (is/are)
9. The two officers _____ gasping. (is/are)
10. The wild animal _____ pushing the button. (is/are)

Now write two of your own sentences, one that uses "is" and one that uses "are".

1. _____

2. _____