Transcribe to me: A TYPICAL BRONTÊ NOVEL

Hi, my name is Lydia. This is a typical Brontë novel.
I always did see at school a little Brontë in myself. I have brought up quite a few children of my own. I usually have to hold them right. Sometimes when I look at them I think I always have trouble at school as was I. Usually, after school I sometimes play football.
In the evening I often watch TV. There I do my homework. We have dinner at seven o'clock. I usually go to bed at half past nine. And that's my day.

Correct the mistakes:
