Objectives:

- Choose books to read based on interest
- Maintain a monthly or 10-book TBR list of titles
- Organize your reading efficiently by genre and mood
- Encourage other students to read by sharing books you enjoyed

Name Card No. _____

NOTE: We will have individual independent reading time in class until week. The rest after that time you have to read a book and finish it. If you don't finish it, you will be penalized. If you don't finish any of the books you have to read, you will be penalized.

A. Create a BOOK TRACKER for your book. Be sure to write every book in chronological order. Write as many as you can in 2025!

Requirements for the BOOK TRACKER:

1. The page must be in a notebook form 8.5" x 11" and in landscape form 11" x 8.5"
2. The page is completed on plain white paper, notebook paper, graph paper, or lined paper
3. Fill in the month which is the month you plan to finish the book
4. The page is formatted in bullet form, a neat page, and neatness counts as well as a page showing all the plot, theme, and transition of the book.
5. Words will usually need to be in bullet form (unless the page is neatness), and they must be neatness.
6. The bullet contains a one page book, a traffic light system, (include book title, the color green indicates the plot, underlining, and transition of the book, change a book title + a numerical summary on the bottom for the month.

B. Create a characteristic book tale to give to the class. Your book tale should include the following information:

1. The title and author of the book
2. The type of book (nonfiction, science fiction, mystery, biography, fantasy, historical)
3. A quote - something that would interest others and greatly make them want to read the book
4. An image of the cover of the book, or a reason for the rating
5. Suggestions about who would enjoy reading the book (If you like _____, you need to read this book, too!)

NOTE: The TBR will also include a list of books that I recommend. This book is a message, a book or a book that they can read. Also, I will make sure that all the books listed are in my library.