The Magic School Bus Rides the Wind

by Anne Capeci, Illustrated by Carolyn Bracken

Note to adult: Read and enjoy the book together. If your child needs help, assist in completing the activity sheets.

LIBRARY TIP:
Text is included in some pictures in this book, including signs, buildings, etc., and magazine. Point out that some words are in the text and some are in the illustrations. Explain that some words include other characters as and show what a coping mark means.

Wind Makes Things Move

The wind makes many things move. In the boxes below read the word and draw a picture of the thing moving in the wind.

Kite	Windmill	Sailboat

Look around your home or yard for things that move in the wind. Look at the book again to see things that move in the wind. Fill in these boxes with things you choose.
