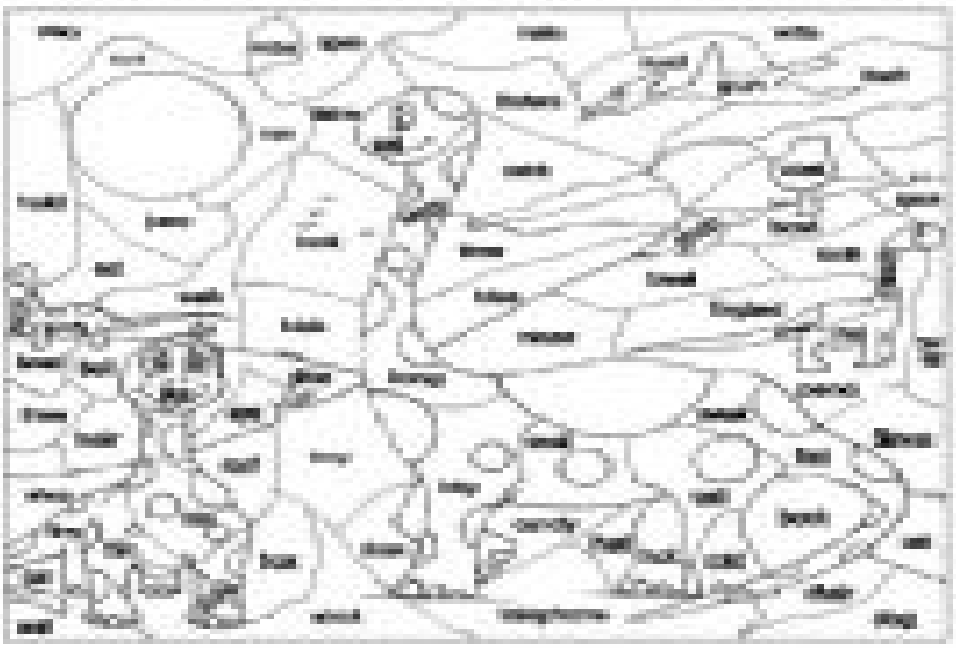
Nouns, verbs and adjectives.

Nouns are naming words. They are words for people, animals, places and things.

Verbs are doing words. They tell what is happening.

Adjectives are describing words. They tell you more about nouns.



Look at the picture.

Colour all the shapes with nouns in them green.

Colour all the shapes with verbs in them blue.

Colour all the shapes with adjectives in them purple.