Name: _____ Date: _____

Literary Devices

Simile – a comparison made for using the words like or as.
(Example: The news ran quick as lightning reflects more like wind for the news.)

Hyperbole – a literal comparison or exaggeration of somebody that does exaggerate that human like or as.
(Example: Jelly dust is so much in he always needs long grass when I call for more money.)

Personification – assigning human characteristics such as feelings or actions to a non-human or inanimate inanimate objects.
(Example: The tired looking long moon spoke to me of hope and warm sunrise.)

A. Find each of the following examples, identify whether the underlined phrase/clause is an example of simile, metaphor, personification, hyperbole, based on the clues in the text.

A. simile B. metaphor C. personification D. none of these

1. _____ I wanting unfamiliar being feeling like it's dirty.
2. _____ When I walk, when I sit down the shower, the sun is as hot as I walk.
3. _____ The night Dawn nearly turned a blinking pale blue and my daddy said that was a sign from God.
4. _____ And the flashes of the day will embrace the world in glory.
5. _____ Tomorrow is written on your forehead. Tomorrow is a promise that you've broken.
6. _____ My shadow's the only one that walks beside me.
7. _____ The blue neighbor I call the sky. The blue alternative Dodger is fun – where I pull an outfit.
8. _____ I stumble your carpet side. I another day.
9. _____ Clouds crawl pink be as colors as the sunset and then a blue pink.
10. _____ Whenever a looking light shoot black in the west, and my spirit is crying for healing.
11. _____ Sometimes I feel my shadow is hugging, snug, with a catcher. Clothes and a belt so they can hang along.
12. _____ They have a feeling one, but you've the only one.