Describe the author's style:

William Shakespeare writes in a very distinctive style. Macbeth is written with a specific cadence in a serious tone. Shakespeare deviates from multiple styles for different characters. Such as a constant iddle and rhyme scheme the witches dialect possess serious (ugly) lil where her dialect is mostly involved around a rhythm that stresses words. Throughout the play a constant vocabulary learning session will happen because Macbeth uses a rich vocabulary.

Details of setting (include changes in setting):

"The setting of the play includes a foul day of a thunderstorm, fog, and rain's echoing out. The witches need to depart place during this. "The weather and the place contribute to the eerie atmosphere." (Lesson 10)

Copy a short passage that demonstrates the author's style:

When shall we three meet again
In thunder, lightning, or in rain?
When the hurlyburly's done,
When the battle's lost and won.
That will be ere the set of sun.
Where the place?
Upon the heath.
There to meet with Macbeth.
All the witches are upset, and the rainfall greatest.
The needs their charge with seeing I have drugg'd their possets,
That death and nature do contend about them,
Whether she live or die.

Significance of setting to the meaning of the work:

"The setting gives meaning to the story of Macbeth because it's the precursor of what is to come. Macbeth and Banquo don't see clearly in any sense physically being the fog, and mentally being able to grasp what the witches say. " (Dear that setting can be used to predictive important facts of the plot" (Lesson 10)
