POSSESSIVES

Read the passage carefully. On the lines, write the correct form of the bracketed words in brackets. Put a tick ✓ if it is correct.

The Sea King and the Spells Removed	1.
Far out in the ocean, there lived a Sea King's and	2.
his six lovely daughters. They had no legs as we	3.
humans; the King's and his daughters' tails were	4.
like a fish's tail. They were sea people called	5.
mermaids. The Sea King's rule for all his young	6.
girls girls to not swimming above the sea until they	7.
are fifteen years old. His rule said	8.
Now, the youngest daughters birthday was	9.
same. The only mermaid had much of her sisters	10.
gifts, but she wished to see the Earth's or people	11.
above the sea. And, she saw the people might stay a	12.
like full of days" she thought. "I can't wait to tell my	13.
sisters about its beauty!"	14.