Checking Account

A. Reading

Rose is engaged to her boyfriend Kyle. They plan to get married in May, and they are exchanging [illegible] a month for the wedding and the honeymoon. Kyle wants to open a joint checking account in both of their names, but Rose refuses. She likes having her own bank account. She has a savings account and a checking account, and she doesn't want another account. Kyle is frugal with his money, and if she opens a bank account with him, he might ask her to explain why she withdrew money from the account. He might even ask her why she didn't deposit enough money into their account. Kyle thinks that Rose doesn't trust him. He said they can't get married if she doesn't trust him. What should Rose do? Should she open a joint checking account with Kyle?
