

Remembrance Day

Copy this text into your Integrated Studies Books and fill in the missing spaces:

Each year, at 11:00a.m., on the 11/11, we stop for 2 minutes of _____ to remember the Australian soldiers who have _____ in wars. This was the time that the First World War _____ in Europe after 4 years of _____.

For several weeks beforehand people sell cloth _____. The money goes to _____ the families of those who have died in wars. After the war, people noticed that the _____ poppies were the first flowers to grow in the battlefields of Belgium and France, where so many of our _____ soldiers died and so the poppies have become a _____ of our remembrance.

At the end of the _____ minute of silence you will hear the Last Post played on a bugle. Traditionally the Last Post is the bugle call that was played the _____ of the day's fighting. It is also sounded at military funerals _____ commemorative services such as ANZAC Day and Remembrance _____ to indicate that the soldier has gone to his final rest.

Choose from these words.

stopped	end	and	Day	silence	fighting
poppies	died	brave	symbol	help	red	one

