DRAMA – FOR KIDS
Objectives: Enrichment of vocabulary, correct usage and functions, creation of dramatic insight, use of key sentences etc.

LAZY SHARON

THE CHARACTER

Sharon is a very lazy girl. She does nothing on earth because she is always tired.
She does not eat breakfast because she does not have time for sleeping for preparation.
She does not take her room because it is too much work for her.
She does not tell her parents because she is going to confront them all night anyway.
She does not go, her teachers because she believes that the school can not be her.
She does not help her mother at home. "Ladies are fragile!"
She does not do much of anything and tries to save her energy.
One sunny night, she gets into bed a nightmare of waking up late without that she ought have to make the morning trip.

KEY SENTENCES
Address to Sharon:

1. Sharon, it is time to get up. My patient is a book.
2. I honestly forgot, do I have to tell you that if you be late for school, I won't tolerate it any more.
3. Go and prepare your breakfast. Remember you're an adult, you will up having Sunday like whole day.
4. Go and tidy your room. It's a total mess.
5. Go and feed your pigeon.
6. "The teacher says you are lazy.
7. "You never do your homework.
8. I'm sick of your behaviour.
9. Attitude matter. I expect great improvement from your father. Return has had enough.

Sharon's answers to bad mouthed:

1. I want to go on sleeping. I'm tired.
2. I'm fed up with school.
3. I don't have the strength to make a sandwich.
4. I don't have the strength to feed the pigeon.
5. I hate doing homework and I'd like quite finance to go to movie and evening up to 1000 years! Sorry mom!