They are trying to study machines. Julia, Susan's Hungarian friend, has to drill your with questions.

1. Broad-spectrum new study machines

I usually get up at twenty past five because I go to school by bus.
In the morning I have a shower, brush my teeth and have a cup of tea.
At twenty past six I usually leave the house.
At seven o'clock I arrive in school.
School starts at quarter past seven.
I have breakfast at eight o'clock.
I usually have six or seven lessons a day so I have lunch in the school canteen at two o'clock.
After lunch I go home by bus. I usually take the bus during bus.
I arrive home at half past three. Then I do my homework. At about five o'clock I start to watch or play computer games. Then I talk my mother with the housework, so in the evenings I watch TV and I go to bed at about ten o'clock.
