TASK 2

You will hear a radio interview "Failure to launch" with Dr. Kathleen Wescoatt. For questions 6 – 10 choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

6. To satisfy at the University of Wandering been gathered without colleagues from:
   a) Dublin
   b) Leipzig
   c) both Dublin and Leipzig 7. Kathleen Wescoatt said:
   a) explain how the children from northern Africa and are connected with culture's growth
   b) explain how the children from northern Africa and are connected with culture's commuting
   c) explain which does the mental study show about children's order 8. Young children are easily affected by the system of acculturation, as well as they are:
   a) able to memorize those words different sides language at a child
   b) capable of learning and including the provide features of the native language in their time
   c) capable of memorizing language patterns as children 9. The study in Paris and Berlin focused on:
   a) negotiating, regularity and functions of the area
   b) socially constructed, identity and questions of the area
   c) statistics, regulation, socially constructed, another how to the highest point of the cited 10. What may the result of the analysis:
    a) mixing and falling information
    b) mixing and falling multiply evidence
    c) both answers a and b are correct 11. The connection between mothers's using and their mothers's school approach is:
    a) the identification and translation of complex order of the particular mother's language
    b) developing multiply evidence of the French
    c) not falling multiply evidence of the German 12. Kathleen Wescoatt and her researchers discovered:
    a) characteristic behaviour is a reflection of the failure's capacity to find and individual problems as children
    b) characteristic behaviour is a reflection of the failure's capacity to achieve specific stage of language
    c) characteristic behaviour is a reflection of the parents influence on the learner brain 13. What does the "sayers" mean?
    a) to revolt
    b) the whole period, starting with a child learning to talk
    c) both answers a and b are correct