University of Phoenix Material

Oral Evaluation Rubric

Directions: As a member of the University of Phoenix Material, Oral Evaluation Rubric is an instrument for grade according to the SMART Criteria. Provide support for your evaluation.

Oral Criteria and Grade	5 Is the grade excellent?	4 Is the grade exceptional?	3 Is the grade satisfactory?	2 Is the grade marginal?	1 Is the grade unacceptable?
Example	Yes After analyzing a client's financial position, the student recommends a mix of investments in stocks, bonds, and mutual funds.	Yes The student focuses on the needs of the client, the consequences of operating in a risky area, and recommends the best investments.	Yes After already analyzing the client's situation, the student recommends a mix of investments that will meet the client's needs.	Yes Recognizing a client's risk in investing, the student recommends a mix of investments that will meet the client's needs.	No A mix of investments is not a good idea for a client's situation.
Example	Yes After analyzing a company's need, the student is confident in recommending the best solution to the company's needs.	Yes After analyzing the company's needs, the student is confident in the recommendation.	Yes After the company's needs are analyzed, the student recommends the best solution.	Yes Recognizing the company's needs, the student recommends a solution.	Yes After the company's needs are analyzed, the student recommends a solution.
Grade	Yes The student is on a roll.	No The student is magnificent.	No The student's fabulous.	No The student is a high school.	No The student is not physically.	No The student's a bad.