

Direct and Indirect Object Quiz

No talking. None. You don't want a zero or to be sent out. So be quiet. You can do it. We have faith in you.

A. Fill in the steps to find a direct object. (6 pts)

1. Find the _____.
2. Decide if it's a _____ or _____ verb.
3. If it's a _____ verb, ask the question " _____ " or " _____ " after the verb.
4. The answer is the _____.

B. Fill in the steps to find an indirect object. (10 pts)

1. Follow the steps to find the _____.
2. If there's no _____, then there's no _____.
3. If there is a _____, then ask " _____," " _____," or " _____ " after the verb.
4. The answer is the _____.
5. Indirect objects are NEVER in _____.

C. Underline the direct objects in each sentence, and circle the indirect objects. Remember, not all sentences will have both. (14 pts)

1. The artist drew us a sketch.
2. Pay the manager the rent on the first of the month.
3. Grace prepared chicken for lunch.
4. Someone handed Rose a free sample of pizza.
5. Send Bob a postcard from Florida.
6. Peggy practiced her serve all afternoon.
7. The nurse gave the patient a lollipop.
8. The audience gave the speaker lots of boos.

Extra Credit: Write the verb in each sentence (4 pts)

Write three sentences having both direct and indirect objects.