

Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns

Exercise

Circle the direct object and put a line under the indirect object. Some sentences will not have direct or indirect objects.

1. I bought her a new laptop.
2. He took me to the new shop.
3. I remembered.
4. She's the winner of the race.
5. My writing is full of mistakes.
6. I bought her a coat for $50.
7. She gave me the coat.
8. Are you talking to me?
9. My pen is different.
10. He's talking to her.

Write the names with the correct pronouns. Use either the subject pronouns (I, you, he, she, it, we) or the object pronouns (me, him, her, it, us, them).

1. I talked to the man who was sitting next to me. _____
2. She was talking to her neighbor. _____
3. He was talking to his neighbor. _____
4. The baby likes to throw food at his grandparents. _____
5. My grandfather is talking to _____, _____, _____.

Write your own sentences using direct and indirect objects. Use your own words or those of other students.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____