This worksheet contains 100 simple sentences to practice conjugation of –AR, -ER, and –IR verbs. I designed it as an exam practice but it could be used at any point for any verb tense. (preterite, imperfect, present, conditional, future) You can decide what tense to assign to the packet. If you assign it as preterite homework, be aware that some verbs in the practice have irregular forms.

Each section contains a helpful box chart first for students to write out the regular verb endings.
Next come the sentences.
40 sentences using –AR verbs:

Now use the box chart to practice conjugating –AR verbs.

1. Tomás _____ en la clase de arte. (PINTAR)
2. Nosotros _____los animals. (DIBJUAR)
3. Martina _____ por teléfono con su prima. (HABLAR)

30 sentences using –ER verbs

4. Tú no _____ bien cuando hablan en español. (COMPRENDER)
5. Enrique es muy travieso y no _____ a su madre. (OBEDECER)
6. Ellos no _____ muchas clases diferentes para mí. (OFRECER)

And 30 sentences using –IR verbs.

7. Tú _____ en una casa muy grande. (VIVIR)
8. Los vecinos _____ mucho correo. (RECIBIR)
9. Los víctimas _____ el accidente a la policia. (DESCRIBIR)

Worksheet works great as extra practice for students who need it, a review for final exams, or as an in class group exercise. Nothing super fancy about this worksheet, just enough extra practices for everyone as never seems to be enough included in textbook editions.
