Schedule: Verbs and Connectors

1. Verbs (the right connective for the sentence)

1. I can ride a bicycle. I could swim. (ability)
2. I commutated that I could swim. (Example)

3. I play football. I play football.

4. I drink water. I drink water a lot.

5. I go to school. I go to school.

6. Are you tall? Are you right-handed?

7. I am a good student. I am good (generally).

8. I have blue eyes. I have red hair (some).

9. Are you married? Are you single?

10. I enjoy watching TV. I enjoy listening music.

11. I like playing tennis. I don't like to eat baby in.

Connectors

Time	(given)
Cause	(if)
Place	(wherever, everywhere)
Sequence (coordination) (and, or, but, nor, so, yet)
Etc.	(well, (given)

Documentation: Other forms of modal verb

Affirmative:

Subject + modal + verb + complement.
(Tom's brother can be tall).
(Tom's brother might tall).

Negative:

Subject + Modal + not + verb + Complement.
(Tom's brother can't tall).
(Tom's brother might not tall).

Questions:

Modal + subject + verb + complement?
(Can Tom's brother tall?)
(Might Tom's brother tall?)