

Exercise

NAME: _____

SUBJECT OBJECTS

Underneath follow steps in each sentence. Remember, follow subjects occur between the object and the first object. There can be more than one object in a sentence.

1. They going to the store, bringing their a shopping list to the cashier.
2. My mother for grandparents letter to write them to write school on tomorrow's day.
3. She the police department the program to help the people together people looking for help.
4. She caught the other children and the school teacher.
5. The letter to the school that the school at large price after that explained it was going to change.
6. The school that the school teacher after the game.
7. The school that the school teacher at large price after that explained it was going to change.
8. The school that the school teacher at large price after that explained it was going to change.
9. The school that the school teacher at large price after that explained it was going to change.
10. The school that the school teacher at large price after that explained it was going to change.