

Name _____

Date _____

Inuit Indians

Directions: Cut out and group the items according to where they should go on the chart.
This activity focuses on the Inuit Indians and the clothing, food, shelter and where this tribe is located.

Clothing	Shelter	Location /Climate	Food

The Inuit wear heavy clothing like their Eskimo friend with each other.

During the summer, Inuit live in Inuit made of animal skins. Some live in houses made of logs or better yet ice.

The Inuit live in the northern regions of Canada and Alaska and in the Arctic region.

In the winter, Inuit live in igloos. In the summer, Inuit live in houses made of logs or better yet ice.

The Inuit live in the Arctic where it is extremely cold.

The climate where the Inuit live is very dry and extremely hot.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.

The Inuit live in the Arctic region where it is very cold. They eat fish and seal.