

Write the correct form, positive or negative, after each in parentheses :

1. He often reads (read) the newspaper in class.
2. My father loves (love) the football program.
3. They attend (attend) the same course every Monday.
4. I go (go) to school every day.
5. Some girls love (love) to make up.

aff. / n. Write the -ed form after the name of these verbs :

study	1. studied	visit	2. visited	do	3. did
drive	4. drove	think	5. thought	fly	6. flew
go	7. went	go	8. went	have	9. had
leave	10. left	put	11. put	learn	12. learned
live	13. lived	make	14. made	work	15. worked
say	16. said	stop	17. stopped	take	18. took
write	19. wrote	try	20. tried	make	21. made
watch	22. watched	work	23. worked	write	24. wrote
work	25. worked

Write a paragraph about your friend's mother.

write up - go up - walking / Noun - love to / verb - for walking / verb - have / have - watch the football / newspaper - watch the world - have / have - have work - have / have - have / have - watch TV - drink tea - walking / verb - have / have - go / go / go / go / go / go

Make these sentences negative :

1. I love (love) the football program.
2. My mother loves (love) the football program.
3. They go (go) to school every day.
4. Some girls love (love) to make up.