ANSWER
ARTICLE I. SECTION 1. ALL LEGISLATIVE POWERS SHALL BE VESTED IN A CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, WHICH SHALL CONSIST OF A SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

- 1. The legislative power shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.
- 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members elected by the people of the several states, and the elections shall be in each state in such manner as the legislature thereof may determine.
- 3. No Representative or member of the House shall be chosen for a term longer than two years; but no person shall be chosen for a longer term than he has already served, if he shall have been elected to fill a vacancy.
- 4. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment.
- 5. The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. If the vote of two thirds of the members present shall be in favor of conviction, the party convicted shall be removed from office, but shall not be incapable of being again elected.
- 6. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States shall be impeachable and liable to impeachment by the House of Representatives.
- 7. The Senate shall have the sole power to impeach and try all civil Officers of the United States.
- 8. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States shall be impeachable and liable to impeachment by the House of Representatives.
- 9. The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States shall be impeachable and liable to impeachment by the House of Representatives.
