Name	Skill: Reading comprehension-reasoning
My old shoes were great. holes in them, were dirty, and salways felt good in them. Yeste some new shoes. She threw my shouted, "Hooray, they are gon	Even though they had squeaked, my feet erday, Mom came home with my old ones in the trash. She felt so funny when I tried them even squeak. "The kids at scho told my mom. She just kept on ed digging in the trash. "There thought. At school the next day	on. They were stiff and tight. They didn't cooking at these bright hard things," I cooking. After everyone was asleep, I start-you are! I found you! We're back together!" I y, no one laughed at me. All they saw were shoes as before. "I'll just put these new
Did I like my new shoes? Ho	ow do you know?
Did Mom like my old shoes?	How do you know?
How did I feel about the new	v shoes?
Did Mom care that the kids a	at school would laugh at the new shoes?
5. Did I have on my old or new	shoes at school the next day?
© Teacher's Friend, a Scholastic Company	33 Sed Grade Basic Skills: Reading and Math - Thinking Skills