

THE SCENE IN THE PLAY: THE SCENE IN THE PLAY
THE SCENE IN THE PLAY: THE SCENE IN THE PLAY - 10

- 10 -

1. What are the main ideas that the scene is presenting about the world that we live in?

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Question:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Question:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Question:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Question:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Question:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

Answer:
 The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual. The scene is presenting the idea of the power of the individual and the power of the individual.

2. What are the...

A. ... → Why don't you ...

B. ... → Why don't you ...

C. ... → Why don't you ...

D. ... → Why don't you ...

E. ... → Why don't you ...