

Be a Good Neighbor

Listen for directions.

Bonus Box: Think of another way to be a good neighbor. Draw it on the back of this sheet.

Illustrations from the "Business Social Neighbor Day" activity are arranged in a grid within a dashed border. The grid has two rows and five columns. The top row shows five illustrations of good neighbor actions: 1. A person holding a trash bag to a trash can. 2. A person watering a plant. 3. A person holding a recycling bin. 4. A person holding a recycling bin. 5. A person holding a recycling bin. The bottom row shows five illustrations of bad neighbor actions: 1. A person dropping a trash can. 2. A person stepping on a flower. 3. A person stepping on a flower. 4. A person stepping on a flower. 5. A person stepping on a flower.

