

Writing a story

Year: _____

Page No. _____

At 6 o'clock Chris decided that he couldn't wait any longer to tell them the news. He knew that the next time he would see them would be the weekend and that was in four days! He didn't want anybody else to tell them about it. The right moment has come and he was ready...

Think about:

1. Who is Chris?
2. Who is 'them'?
3. What's the news?
4. What's the title of the story? (put it in the box above)

Now continue the story and try to make it as interesting as possible! Remember to use paragraphs, punctuation (full stops, speech marks, etc.) and capital letters. Use the box below. You may continue on the other side of this sheet.
