

Grammar Auction

Each group has £20,000 to spend. Try to buy as many correct sentences as possible.

(You can also use tactics to persuade other teams to buy the incorrect ones, for example, bidding for incorrect sentences.)

1. I have never been to England.
2. Freddy Mercury never went to university.
3. I like Madonna for five years.
4. He has been a teacher for ten years.
5. Did you see the doctor yet?
6. Mark taught nine lessons yesterday
7. Tony Blair have been the British Prime Minister for eight years.
8. I have read something very interesting in the newspaper last week.
9. When you went to Rome last week, have you seen the Vatican?
10. I went to the cinema twice this month.
11. Last year we bought a new house in Spain.
12. Tahid works in an Indian restaurant. He has cooked 327 meals this week!
13. John has been to South Carolina (USA) last Christmas to visit his girlfriend.
14. Candy loves travelling. She has been to New York, Hong Kong, Thailand, South America and Russia.