

Industrial Revolution Quiz

1. Which date is the Industrial Revolution began?
- 1750
 - 1760
 - 1770
 - 1780
2. All of the following is associated the Industrial Revolution EXCEPT?
- Population increase
 - Technological innovation
 - Urbanization
 - Wage laborers
3. Negative effects of the Industrial Revolution included all of the following EXCEPT?
- Child labor
 - Pollution
 - Long hours
 - Colonial expansion
4. This picture shows what problem of the factory system?
-
- Lack of working conditions
 - Lack of pay for women
 - Child labor
 - The lack of education
5. United States senators used the mule as a symbol of the opposition for following a senator
- Morison, failed working conditions and low pay
 - One millionth of a cent
 - One factory worker's work money
 - Half the price of goods
6. What were the working conditions like during the Industrial Revolution?
- The work was repetitive and boring, unenjoyable, dangerous, dirty.
 - Though work was dangerous, there were no child labor laws, so many children worked in mines, spinning, and in factories. When they were, there's always a child labor law.
 - Children under the age of 10 were not hired to work in the factories because parents did not want their child to be put into a grimy, dangerous workplace.
7. Henry Ford was credited with starting the assembly line. Why is the assembly line so important?
- Made parts cheaper
 - Produced parts faster
 - Workers became skilled workers
 - All of the above