Name: Date:
Linking Verbs Worksheet (Complements Part 1)
A linking verb connects the subject part with a noun or adjection in the predicate part.	ve
Directions: Write each sentence below. Circle the linking verb. Draw an arrow to the complement. Sample linking verbs include: is, are, was, were, am
Example A: I am going to school in the morning. Answer: am-going to school
1. The students in the class are very restless.	_
2. The teacher was very nervous on the first day of school.	_
3. The team was very excited about the big game coming up on the weekend.	1
4. They are very pleased that the students were able to culminate on stage.	_
5. We are excited to announce a new winner!	_