

Directions: Personal pronouns take the place of common and proper nouns. Replace the underlined noun with a pronoun.

them me we us you she he her him they

1. Please give the receipt to Jane so she can file it away.

2. I watched as the five brown-spotted puppies slid through the kitchen.

3. Harry, could Mary please vacuum the living room rug for mom?

4. This evening, Ken, Bob, and I are going to play basketball at the park.

5. Chef Carl made a dozen donuts for Susan, Kate, Lisa, and me.

6. Dr. Patricia went skiing last week with her daughter and friend Betty.

7. I think Jonathan is going to go grocery shopping for the party today.

8. Bernadette gave the DVD to Christopher to place into the player.

9. George got to the movie early so he sat and waited for Les and Bob.

10. I wrote my name, Wendy, on my paper after Steve gave it to Steady.