

READING & ASSIGNMENTS

List 20's' Nominative Phrases
(List of the subject) subject of the sentence)
(name/noun/pronoun)
She	referred to during her trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
It	referred to John's trial period.
It	referred to John's trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.

Example: John will pass the test because John is my older brother.
John was very patient about John who sitting for 100% of the time.
John is my younger sister. John is the greatest gift she ever gave me.

Antecedent (noun)	John is the president of our state.
--------------------------	-------------------------------------

John is the president of our state. John is the president of our state.
 (Antecedent) (Pronoun) "she" - refers to John

John is the captain of the team. John is the captain of the team.
 (Antecedent) (Pronoun) "he" - refers to John

Text 1: Under the following words, underline the antecedent and the pronoun. Put an arrow from the pronoun to its antecedent.

1. John is the best actor in the play. He is excited and very talented.
2. My father is visiting our friend. She calls him often.
3. John and John are brothers. They are very close to each other.
4. John, John and John are going to the bank. They will buy me a new jacket.
5. John is sleeping under the table. He is sleeping.
6. John, John and John are brothers. They are the best of their class.
7. John is going to the bank. He will give me some food for the poor.
8. John will call John on the wall. He will give me some help.
9. John is the best of the class. He is the best of the class.
10. The girl who is the best is calling John. It seems to be true.