

Name: _____

Shadows

Directions: Make a shadow change. Choose an object. Grab a light source such as a flashlight or desk lamp. Keep your object in a stationary position on a table, but change the position of the light source. Draw your object and how the shadows look each time you change the position of the light source. Draw where your light source is located and indicate with an arrow the direction of the light.
