

Appendix 1

LEARNING OBJECTIVES, multi-personal work, best practice

- Identifying, posing and solving questions and problems needed for a task or programme, using different sources of information, available knowledge, and resources, as well as, the cooperation of other people in order to solve them in a creative way.
- Establishing balanced, respectful and constructive relationships in various constellations.
- Developing individual skills and group work routines.
- Acquire sufficient language fluency to communicate complexly in everyday situations.
- Developing interpersonal skills, especially self-confidence, attitudes, critical sense, empathy and individual initiative.
- Inviting and considering feedback and the development, creating a favourable behaviour to use it.

LEARNER OBJECTIVES

- Developing a broad competence to learn a Foreign language.
- Understanding oral messages and taking them in everyday situations.
- Using verbal and non-verbal procedures in order to communicate in different situations.
- Reading and understanding short and simple texts needed to meet particular, the students own requirements and able to use their knowledge of the world around to obtain general and specific information.
- Establishing relations between the meaning, pronunciation and spelling of words or contents, recognizing the variety