

EXERCISES ON THE USE OF THE VERB 'TO BE'

Write down the correct form of the verb 'to be' in each sentence. Use the form of the verb that is given in brackets. If there is no form given, use the form of the verb that you think is correct.

1. Write

He is playing tennis every day.

She isn't coming to the party on Friday.

They are going to the cinema.

He isn't working in the office any more.

She is always late for school.

There isn't any more of that kind of music.

2. Write

He is a very good player.

She isn't very happy with her work.

They are going to the cinema every week.

He isn't working in the office any more.

She is always late for school.

There isn't any more of that kind of music.

3. Write