

How To Draw a Peacock

The body is like a skinny teardrop. He has a little head with a long beak. there are feathers sticking out of the top of his head. the wing feathers go down on the sides.
to keep things even draw guidelines like big half circles.

Draw the eyes of the feathers along the guide lines. the eyes look like teardrops with a smile and a dot. Be careful to keep all the eyes the same size. There is a bunch of feathers at the base of the tail, that are like half circles.

Draw the stem of each feather going from each eye to the body, use two thin lines, one for each side of the stem. there are hairs on each side of the stem draw them lightly

©Aron's